

Mr. Adebayo Olawale Edun Mr. Adebayo Olawale Edun (Wale), B.Sc, MA is the Chairman Chapel Hill Denham Group, a leading investment bank in Nigeria. He also serves as Chairman Nations Newspaper Limited, publishers of a widely circulating newspaper in Nigeria. He served as Commissioner of Finance in Lagos State for 2 (two) terms between 1999 and 2004. He served as an Executive Director, Investment Banking and Trust Company Limited (now Stanbic IBTC Plc). He rose to be Head of Treasury and was duty head of Corporate Finance at Chase Merchant Bank Limited between 1980 and 1986. He holds a Master's Degree in Development Economics from the University of Sussex, Brighton, United Kingdom and a Bachelor of Science (Hons) in Economics from the University of London, Queen Mary College, United Kingdom. Wale serves as an International Trustee of the Duke of Edinburgh's International Award Foundation. He is also Chairman of Lagos Boxing Hall of Fame, a registered non-profit youth development organization that runs amateur boxing in Lagos in conjunction with the Lagos Amateur Boxing Association, He is involved Sisters Unite, a non-profit organization which runs a shelter for street girls and Live Well Initiative Organization, which engages in public health education and interventions in communities. He enjoys playing polo and he is married with three children.