

Uwa Ohiku

Uwa has specialist experience in all aspects of IP Law & Practice, managing the portfolios of numerous blue-chip international corporations. She has led the firm to numerous awards internationally and in Nigeria in this area of expertise.

Uwa was featured in the 2013 and 2014 Editions of International Who is Who of Professionals in Nigeria; the only Nigerian Panelist of WIPO's Domain Names Resolution Center.

SOME ACCOMPLISHMENTS: Member of Committee of Experts, appointed by the Federal Science & Technology Minister in April 2011, to review the Draft Science, Technology & Innovation Policy's compliance with Intellectual Property law; Drafted Terms of Reference for a study on Intellectual Property for OPEC's Research & Development (R&D) officials in July 2010.

SOME RECOGNITIONS: Recognized as one of the leading IP lawyers in Nigeria by Practical Law Company, 2011; Awarded IP STAR in 2014 and 2015, in recognition of outstanding achievements, by Managing Intellectual Property (MIP), the most respected IP voice worldwide.

EDUCATION & PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT: Harvard Business School, Boston, USA, March 2013; Executive MBA for Lawyers; London, 2007; Lagos Business School (LBS/Pan African University) 2005; Nigerian Law School; B.L 1986; University of Benin Nigeria; LL.B 1985