

Physicians: Are you searching for a flexible opportunity where you can provide clinical care in your home country while maintaining your practice in the US/UK?

Employers: Are you interested in finding western-trained physicians to add to your growing hospitals or practices?

Anadach Group, LLC is a strategic global healthcare firm which provides innovative advice and recruiting services to clients in emerging markets. We specialize in matching top quality physician candidates with our clients in developing economies. We leverage our extensive expertise to focus on our main objective- offering the best physician recruitment services to physicians and clients.

At Anadach, we pride ourselves on our extensive network of clients and physicians. We have developed strong relationships with clients (hospitals, practices, governments, insurers) and healthcare providers (physicians, nurses, laboratory scientists).

Innovation: At Anadach, we understand that clients may require guidance to develop flexible models for physicians to practice at their facilities. We offer a wealth of knowledge on innovative models to recruit and retain such physicians.

Committed: We will work with you until you find a positive match.

Our Team is comprised largely of healthcare professionals who understand the varied needs of our clients and physician professionals. Our team will work with you to identify the optimal model of practice for both the client and the physician.
